DEI ACTIVITY REPORT ITEM
(19-23 July 1965)

Acquisition of Significant Intelligence Items on Hill Tribes of Northern Thailand

25X1X4 [REDACTED] the Geography Division, OBI, has acquired two intelligence items that are of significance in the context of CIA's expanding interest in the hill tribes of northern Thailand. The first item is a comprehensive listing of Meo and Yao tribal villages in northern Thailand prepared by [REDACTED] personnel; at 25X1X4 DEP's request the village locations are being plotted on 1:250,000 maps. The second item is a copy of the papers (416 pp.) submitted at the Conference on Tribal and Minority Peoples in Southeast Asia, held at Princeton University, 12-14 May 1965, under the auspices of the Asia Foundation.

DBI ACTIVITY REPORT ITEM
(19-23 July 1965)

Timely Availability of HIS

Published Railway, Highway, Inland Waterway, and Ports and Naval Facilities units and a General Survey on certain African areas, made available to OL/TD by Editorial Division, provided material assistance in the preparation of a special DDP project. In addition, Editorial Division obtained from DIA an informal updating of some specific items pertinent to the project.

Manuscript copy of the Manpower unit on the Dominican Republic was forwarded to [REDACTED] in response to special request. Editorial Division also made available the manuscript on Religion, Education, and Public Information on the same area, currently being processed.
